

BCI Environmental Health and Safety (EHS) Conference Sponsorship Opportunities

BCI will present its bi-annual conference covering topics important to the lead battery industry's EHS community during the 2023 BCI Environmental, Health and Safety (EHS) Conference from September 21-22 in Nashville, TN. Don't miss this valuable opportunity to promote your company's products and services to an audience of EHS professionals at the largest meeting of lead battery manufacturing and recycling industry EHS professionals in the nation (typically 80-100 attendees).

The agenda is focused on issues of concern and priority to industry EHS professionals. This seminar series includes two days of educational sessions offered to both BCI members and non-members.

Participation from EHS professionals across the industry includes the senior-most EHS executives and managers from member companies, EHS professional staff, nurses, and operations folks with lead exposure responsibilities. Make this a unique opportunity to engage with key players in a focused professional education environment.

Below are details on sponsorship opportunities to promote your company's products and services to an audience of EHS professionals.
